

WHAT'S YOUR GREAT SUSTAINABILITY IDEA? TEDC WANTS TO FUND YOUR VISION!

Become a TEDC Scholar!

This new grant opportunity is open to all New School students. If you want funding for an idea that creates positive environmental change through your own unique expertise, apply to become a TEDC Scholar!

What you'll get:

Up to $5,000 to fund your own project related to sustainability issues through the lens of design, policy, art, or social justice

Up to an additional $2,500 to serve as a Research Assistant at TEDC
Professional mentoring from TEDC staff and faculty

An opportunity to join TEDC, an integral component of The New School's work on climate change and sustainability

Submit ideas that address critical environmental issues generated by the impacts of climate change and other environmental threats to community well-being and social justice. Projects of all types are welcome.

Info session:

February 17 at 4 pm
Dorothy Hirshon Suite 55 W. 13th
Street Room 205

Application Deadline:

March 18th

To apply, visit: blogs.new-school.edu/tedc/TEDC_Scholar

For more information or help crafting your project, please contact Molly Craft Johnson, Sustainability Associate, at molly@newschool.edu