Exploring Urban Environmental Health in Context: Field Trip to the South Bronx of America Exhibit

Join Ivan Ramirez, Assistant Professor of Environmental Health at Eugene Lang College of Liberal Arts and Kendra Danowski, Project Coordinator for the Civic Engagement and Social Justice hub

at Eugene Lang College of Liberal Arts, for a field trip to the Museum of the City of New York to see the "In the South Bronx of America" exhibit. This trip will explore community resilience and struggle in the context of social, economic, and political injustice, situated in the context of the city we live in. The field trip will take place on Friday, October 14 and the group will depart from the Lang Cafe at 65 W. 11th Street at 10:00 AM. Register here.
