Discounted Citi Bike Memberships (Updated January 2025)

*January 3, 2025 update: Discounted Citi Bike memberships for New School students are no longer available, but you may be eligible for discounts through other means.
From Narwhal Nation News:*

The standard annual price of membership for Citi Bike is $200 per year.

NYCHA, JCHA, and HHA residents are eligible for $5 monthly memberships, and so are SNAP recipients. No annual commitment is required. More info about "Reduced Fare Bike Share" is available at <https://citibikenyc.com/community-programs/reducedfare>

Credit Unions: Members of some credit unions are eligible for a discounted membership of only $5 per month.

Did you know there are Citi Bike stations in front of almost every New School building? From even the "least accessible" buildings, the closest station is just a 1-2 minute walk away! New School students, faculty, and staff can take advantage of a special New School Community Discount. Sign up now at narwhalnation.com for a $120 annual Citi Bike membership ($155 value). Get around The New School even faster by biking between your classes and residence halls, then explore New York City by bike on the weekends. Live off campus? Your membership is valid at any Citi Bike station: find the station nearest your apartment on this map. No matter what, you'll be riding in sustainable style!
