

AN INSIDER'S LOOK AT MONGOLIA

October 28th, 2-3:30PM
University Center, Room 304

Join Oyungerel Tsedevdamba's talk where she will share her experience as an environmental activist, writer, former politician and a graduate of Stanford University, offering multiple "insider" views into Mongolia in the past and today.

For the past few years, she has been actively working on a nationwide campaign to break the toilet taboo in Mongolia for building a system of improved toilets in order to support public health and reduce soil pollution, etc.
